THE TOWN INCORPORATION ACT

It was stated in the JOURNAL yesterday that the writer had not seen the Act incorporating the town of Reno and for that reason could not then make any review of its provisions. Since the statement mentioned he has seen and read the law as passed by the legislature.

The law in its general provisions has the appearance of being equal to demands upon it for town purposes as the town now is and will be for some years in the future. It is Democratic to submit the question of incorporation to the people. They are the people who are to be benefited, and the weight of argument will be upon them and not the possibility of a success or failure which is to the citizens of Reno. There is one provision in the law to which the writer desires to direct attention which appears in the following language: "If the majority of votes cast at such election are in favor of incorporation then this act will go into effect and be in force, otherwise it shall have no force or effect whatever." The language quoted is in Section 36 of the Act.

The future effect of the law is dependent on a condition precedent as lawyers term it. The question presented by the precedent condition includes as the writer believes an attempt to delegate legislative power by the legislature to the people of Reno, which is not within the powers of legislative bodies to do. There are limits to legislative authority, and to rights vested in a legislature.

A law-making body cannot delegate its authority or power to make laws, or call the people to its aid in any particular in connection with lawmaking.

The reasons against any delegation of law-making power by a legislature under our system are so many that it would require much time and space to make any reasonable portion of them known.

The chief reason among the many there are against any delegation of power to the people by a legislature is that it cannot return to the people the authority or any part of it which it received from them to make laws.

The act will not become law till the people of Reno have acted; in other words, the act is dependent on the will of the people of Reno, and was not a result of the will of the legislature. There will be no act of incorporation till the people of the town have made it law. Should they refuse to make it law it will not be law, as it is provided that the act shall be void if the people so will it to be on the 10th of next month. Could there be a more complete delegation of law-making power, provided the legislature had the power to delegate or return that power to the people?

It seems to the writer in the light of law authority that a more full or complete delegation of law-making power could not be made. The law confers upon the corporation the right of eminent domain, or the right to condemn property to its use, which right is extended to personal property.

Would it not be well under these facts to consider carefully and well the question presented by the submission of the act to the people? The writer would like it very much if a mistake has entered into his conclusion respecting the validity of the act. It is well known to some people that his ignorance is boundless, but it is better known to himself that his ignorance has given him more trouble than all else that he has had to meet in life.

LI HUNG CHANG NEAR HIS END.

Reports are sent out to the world again that the health of Li Hung Chang, the great Chinese diplomat, is in a precarious condition. Regrets are expressed by the ministers of the powers about the probable loss to China and to the world at this time through the death of Earl Li, as he is sometimes called. It is claimed that his death at this time would be a crowning misfortune to negotiations not yet completed between China and the powers represented in the late troubles in that country.

It is claimed that Li Hung Chang has more influence with the Emperor and Empress Dowager than all other diplomats in China, and the unsettled condition of affairs, it is learned, in case of his death will be indefinitely continued. His great wisdom in di-diplomacy is not only acknowledged and depended upon by China, but is highly regarded by all the powers and their ministers.

The cinder path to be used by the field day team is nearing completion.

Another baseball game between the College and State Normal teams will take place in the near future.

"A Morning in Petticoat Lane" was the theme of Prof. Anna M. Martin's lecture yesterday at general assembly. It was an interesting talk and evidenced Miss Martin's close attention to manners and customs while abroad.

Illegal Fishing Should be Stopped.

The other morning the JOURNAL called attention to the illegal fishing in the Truckee. District Attorney Pike and Deputy Sheriff Hayes have taken the cue and are out at any hour of the day and night looking for the law-breakers.

If they are caught there will be speedy conviction and ample punishment.

It should be remembered that it is just as illegal to have fish in one's possession out of season as to catch them.

If the Truckee is to continue to be one of the greatest trout streams in the world everybody must stand in to aid the enforcement of the fish law.

PUBLIC
REPORT

Pupils Who Have Advanced in Their Studies.

To the Honorable Board of School Trustees: GENTLEMEN—I have the honor herewith to submit my report for the school month of February 1901.

Many new pupils entered the school last month, but the falling off in the enrollment of the old pupils just about offset the number of new ones.
The attendance, therefore, remains nearly the same—685. Miss Meserve has fifty-two pupils enrolled. The others have from forty-nine down to twenty-eight. The average per teacher being forty-three pupils.

About one half of the pupils have complied with the order of the Board in reference to vaccination. I have had made alphabetical lists of the pupils who have complied, a owing date of vaccination, also of those who have not complied. These I intend to arrange in book form and preserve in the school library, so that hereafter we may credit those already vaccinated. Good health conditions now prevail among the Reno school children.

DEVELOPING THEIR CLAIMS

A Correspondent Writes from a Promising Mining
Camp.

EDITOR JOURNAL: Everything in our camp near Cold Springs is in a promising condition. The birds are singing their sweet praises and beginning to build their nests, and the welcome spring is bringing its fragrant flowers.
Never did I see the grass as fine and abundant in the Sagebrush State at this time of the year. A person standing in this camp and looking at the surroundings realizes that this is an ideal spot. Looking in any direction you can see the snow-capped mountains, and to the south a broad, placid lake.

There is plenty of water here for all practical purposes; wood in abundance and scenery to your heart's content.
On the whole, it is something grand, and to make it complete is the N.-C.O. railway running through the camp, which serves us a daily mail and the news of the world.

We have the mines here, beyond any doubt. We have been doing development work for five months. One shaft is twenty feet deep, and various others from twelve to fifteen feet. One drift eighty feet long taps the ledge 100 feet from the surface. In doing assessment work the past week on the Wheel mine we have encountered a splendid ledge about twenty feet wide.

The copper ores in this camp average high, together with $4 in silver and from $3 to $10 in gold. The lead-silver ores will average $75 per ton.

All the ledges that we have done any development work on show chutes of ore from 600 to 8,000 feet in length on the surface.

There is a corporation being formed by Mr. Norcross in the city of Washington for the purpose of working a group of mines in this camp. They will be ready to begin work in about sixty days with quite a force of men.

Yours respectfully,
J. H. Brown.

New Jerusalem, March 17, 1901.

INSURANCE
MATTERS

A Mutual Company Will Probably be Organized in Nevada.

The Co-op Insurance agency received a telegram from one of the Board companies of San Francisco yesterday as follows: "We know of no company, 'board' or 'non-board' that will insure in Nevada."

They also received a telegram today from Emil Gilgohann, Madison, State fire insurance commissioner for Wisconsin, saying "No," in answer to one asking if he could name any company that would come to Nevada to write insurance under the new valid policy law.

Several leading citizens are preparing to organize a Nevada Mutual fire Insurance Company under the law of 1897.

Under a similar law in California the Fresno County company have carried $150,000 insurance over two years without a cent of loss.

A group of companies in the San Joaquin valley, carrying over $2,000-000 insurance have had to collect in two years $1,000.

In these companies no premiums are collected until an actual loss has occurred.

Are Meant
By many dealers who claim to handle groceries. When they adver-made of PRICE. When price is mentioned QUALITY IS OVER-LOOKED. Again, sometimes they dwell on the virtues of a LARGE STOCK. In this case no claim is made to carrying FRESH GOODS.
